This exclusive chalet enjoys a beautiful open plan kitchen and living room with large windows, offering stunning views of the mountains and the centre of Chamonix.

The living-room has a lovely sofa area with fireplace and sliding doors opening out to the large furnished sun-terrace. The decor is alpine with a sophisticated touch, incorporating beautiful fabrics with rustic wood along with modern fittings and details.

The sun terrace runs along the whole building and is furnished with day beds, chill-out area and a large parasol.

There is a double carport and an equipment/ski-room on the ground level. The driveway is heated and the chalet is accessed via a private road, which joins up with the car park of the ski lifts of Le Brevent.

This chalet has the advantage of being ski in / ski out - experienced skiers can join the home-run of the Brevent ski area to access the main ski lifts. The nursery slopes are located below the chalet and for less experienced skiers, they are reached within a short walk.

You can also walk down to the centre of Chamonix (10 minutes down-hill / 15 minutes up-hill) and the chalet has a privileged location on the sunny hills above the town, overlooking the whole mountain panorama – completely south facing.

Les Grands Montets ski area is a 10-minute drive and Le Tour is 15 minutes by car.
